

MORE ON LLOYD TRIESTINO

The article in the May Bulletin concerning a Lloyd Triestino Perfin cover from Egypt, brings a note from Jack Brandt that he has a similar Lloyd Triestino cover. The ship, however, is "PFO Pilsna." Jack reports that he did some further checking and found mention of these cancels in Ocean Mails, by Philip Cockrill, where the "PFO" is confirmed as standing for "Steamship." The book notes that it is also sometimes abbreviated "Pirosca," and, on newer cancels, is "Motonave" for motor-driven ships. Cockrill mentions the ship "Helouan," covered in the May article, but not the "Pilsna." However, his listing apparently does not purport to be complete.